Fragment 22 35, 2 half sheets. There is a spiritual brain as well as a physical one. Ancient and modern science on this.

In other words you he might say, that an individual who was a nursing infant at noon, on a certain day, would at 12, ~~twenty~~ 20 p.m. on the same day be an adult speaking wisdom instead of his parlor enfantin; for we have trees of man in the glacial period say 250 000 y. ago; and, as Professor Muller accords an antiquity of barely three thousand years to the Vedic parlor enfantin a simple arithmetical calculation gives us the above comparative results

The Phoenicians had adopted the Dmyd worship & detested Mayo They had the Adeptic notion against in terminating [illegible] have developed their typic hoyal the Euphrates.

~~Congo~~ And has [illegible] shown that Corpus regarded the popular Gods the Heroes of the Heroes "Spirits" and the Spirits of the Dryads pity such rests the same feeling or hearts did the Phoenicians ~~myths~~ mythologically. "If we are not able to serve Man, how can we serve the spirits? he replied to a question how the spirit should be served. And this answer in an occasion would have [illegible] the modern spiritualism in the way "Respect the gods (spirits) and keep them also distance."
