H.P. Blavatsky's MSS

Fragment 30 38, part of page 10. Memory.

30

10

calls death — ~~all~~ our memory returns ^ ~~Can this not~~ may this not be due to the fact that simply ~~because~~ for a few seconds we linger on the threshold of that place wherein there is neither past nor future, but all is One present? Especially is memory strong in its early associations; ~~for~~ the explanation of it being very simple; ~~the memory~~ anything that has been part of our soul — and the child is all-soul — must ~~be~~, as Theosophy ~~teaches~~ observes somewhere — be of eternity eternal.