True United States has now become the greatest silver producing country in the world, taking precedence of even Mexico, which has heretofore been supposed to furnish two-thirds of the total supply.

A warren in Blackwood's Magazine conclusively calculates that if the publie debt of the civilized world goes on increasing at its present rate, in a quarter of a century the entire revenues of lating cattle raids just now while the all the nations will be insufficient to Mexicans on the Rio Grande are at pay the interest thereon.

For some reason, best known to them selves, the English riflemen will not let | indicate a nigh degree | Matamoras, which doubtless extends Eleho shield at Wimbledon. The dis- measurably throughout the state of patch says they are willing to have a special match, to be shot between the leader is regarded as an undue inter-Americans and eight selected from the three English teams.

THE government of the little kingdom an insurrection on his hands which will princes. it at their own expense!

FRENCH journalists maintain that England must raise a bigger army if she wants to exert any influence in European affairs. A hundred thousand regular troops are a mere bagatelle compared with the immense armies of that, after the party entered the unexthe continent, they think, to be indifferent to complications in European politics.

in England. We refer to Bogardus, of expedition, are said to be satisfied that the first act in this strange drama. Illinois, the champion pigeon slayer. gold exists there. Whether it will be the Cafe de Paris stands the shop of He yesterday beat an unhappy English- found in sufficient quantities to fill the MM. Degrant Brothers, diamond brokman matched to shoot with him, and now, of course, he challenges all England, twirling his double-barreled shotons in the face and rubbing it under the nose, as it were, of John Bull. We wish Bogardus would come home. He If Gen, Custar had never rambled in is rather rubbing it in, - Cincinnati that vicinity, the Indiana to-day might Commercial,

THE Guelphs and Ghibbelines of the refreshing and rich oasis. Cherokee nation have succeeded in getting up twenty-seven murder cases, United States district court at Fort Smith, Ark, As a result of the trial, seven of the semi-civilized will be hanged in a batch on the third day of September, This will be the largest wholesale hanging since the execution the execution of the boy murderer, So much for madame. of the thirty-three Sioux Indians at Jesse Pomerov.

The facts of the two murders com-

Black Hills for gold, under instructions sion that there are no deposits of the i. e. hanging instead of commutation able property, but, as he was passion- for his body on the unyielding gro proposes now to explore the supposed upon members of the council at actors in the drams, deposits in the bed of the Cheyenne, their homes, offices, on the street, fessor is apparently doing his work in a thorough and conscientious manner, and, until it is completed, the best advice that can possibly be given to persons who entertain the idea of going to in stores when making necessary person requested to see him. A tall, deeply veited lady entered. Dr. Valdeeply veited lady entered. Dr. Va sons who entertain the idea of going to the Black Hills is-" Don't,"

The recent abrogation of three conneil on the question of commutation articles of the constitution of the Gerof sentence, and most able arguments He was subject to fits of monomania. man empire which brings the Roman Catholic church in Germany in complete subjection to the government, and plete subjection to the government, and the severity of the Falck laws passed in 1873 are showing results in the flight of German ecclesiastics to the United States. The telegraph announces the of even a pin; he had no quarrel her boy. She had been advised to conarrival in New York of a large number with them, whereby his passions might of priests and nuns, who propose to have been excited; he suffered no re-Dr. Falck can not curtail their ecclesiastical freedom. The Prussian ecclesi- No cause for these murders are known, astical bills, in effect, banish every Roman Catholic from Germany.

creasing in New York, and it is also re- crimes. They found him to be an unported that there is greater danger than usually bright and intelligent lad; his and so closes the second act, yellow fever. This disease is said to be raging with great virulence throughout raging with great virulence throughout point. When asked how many murders ing his carriage, when he saw his affithe West Indies, and many cases have he had committed his quick reply was, been taken to Key West, Fla. The "Two, sir!" He was asked why he season has been peculiarly adapted to the spread of vellow fever in Cube as "he did not know." He said that "he the spread of yellow fever in Cuba, as was standing with others looking at the come to him!" cried the fractic there have been none of the usual cold, working of a fire engine, when he mother. heavy gales called "Northers," which noticed a pretty looking little boy have acted as a check to the spread of standing near. He suddenly asked the I will be with you immediately." little fellow if he wouldn't take a walk the disease. Vessels are now due at with him, and upon consenting, he was of Messrs. Degranti. New York from ports where yellow fever | led across marshes a distance of at least |

THE San Francisco Chronicle predicts took his pocket knife from his pocket, in a hurry. I only want them for an a heavy Italian immigration into the rapidly opened it, and stabbed, stabbed, United States, and a consequent acces- no consciousness of what he was doing sion to the number of organ-grinders at the time, and never that day fully and plaster-cast venders. Hitherto the realizing what he had done. That in Italians have been pouring into Urugusy all the time he was walking with the is my note of hand for the articles, boy he did not have it in his mind to and the Argentine Republic, the Italian population there now numbering a nalf him with him was for companionship. million sonis, and constituting the chief and it was only when suddenly seized business element. The unsettled state with this uncontrollable impulse that of affairs, however, in these countries, he did the deed, and it all occurred has led the emigrants to turn their attention to the United States. And the toward him.' Chronicle cites the fact that an Italian agent has recently been buying large tracts of land in California for his countrymen to settle upon during this year.

The postoffice department is much pleased with the system of demanding pleased with t pleased with the system of demanding the prepayment of newspaper postage, and will, at the beginning of the next congress, at once endeaver to secure the repeal of the law in relation to the repeal of the law in relation to the prepayment of demanding the system of demanding the prepayment of demanding the prepayment of newspaper postage, and will when a pretty little girl, whom her beautiful eyes, and will expenditude eyes, and once a man who resists them?"

In supplement of newspaper postage, and once a man who resists them? The followed one long, delicious kies, and the followed one long, delicious kies, and the pered by M. de la Bastie's process, it is stated, need only be of a quarter the thickness of ordinary plate glass used thickness of ordinary plate glass used for that purpose, and even then resist them?"

In supplement of newspaper postage, and even the had never seen before, came in and always obtainable, as to make their comparison always obtainable, as to make their comparison. Experiments and the property of the had never seen before, came in and always obtainable, as to make their comparison. Experiments always obtainable, as to make their comparison always obtainable, as to make their comparison always obtainable, as to make their comparison. Experiments always obtainable, as to make their comparison always obtainable, as to make their comparison. Experiments always obtainable, as to make their comparison always obtainable, as to make their the repeal of the law in relation to postage on transient matter in the mails. The law regulating the payment of postage, will, however, be retained. It has been found that, although the rate has been reduced, the department now receives as much as it down the trans and exent the door and passed down the stairs, Founciant of the transition and even then resist and pound of lateral pressure.

—If you are well, let vourself alone.

—If yo

VOLUME XVII.

succeed there as at Dollymount, there will be a growl from John Bull, for he bullet through the bull's eye at 400 yards. But then any woman could have done the same thing, as the queen sat cosily in a luxurious arm chair, and pulled a silver cord which pulled a rifle trigger, sixty yards off, the rifle itself having been sighted for her and fixed immovably in a vise for this

THE Texans of the border will cerrespondent of the New York Tribune

plored region from the east, they struck

He was visited at the jail where he stabbed it into his little victim, having

THE MURDER OF THE LITTLE GIRL.

When asked about the circumstances especial occasion.

PULASKI, TENNESSEE, THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1875.

A HUNDRED YEARS AGO. Where, where are all the birds that sang A bundred years ago? The flowers that all in beauty sprang hundred years are?

The lips that smiled,
The eyes that wild
In flashes shone Soft eyes upon: here, O where are lips and eyes. ie ma'den's smiles, the lover's sighs, That lived so long ago ? Who peopled all the city streets

Who peopled all the city streets
A hundred years ago?
Who filled the church with faces mesk,
A hundred years ago?
The susering tale
Of sister frail;
The plot that worked
A brother's burt!
Where, O where are plots and sucers,
The poor man's hopes, the rich man's fears,
That lived so long ago?

THE DIAMOND ROBBERY.

tainly enjoy a brief respite from desc-Device of Two Clever Swindlers In March, 1850, there arrived at Constantincple, by the Austrian Lloyd's loggerheads about the arrest and incarsteamer Vorwarts, a noblemen styling himself Count Steffano Perragi. ceration of Cortina. The dispatches He took a suit of rooms at Mesirie's indicate a high degree of excitement in ashionable hotel in Pera, and by his lavish style of living soon became the centre of attraction. He said that be Tamaulipas, The capture of their was a colonel of the Austrian Imperial ruption to their smuggling operations had come to Turkey on private governby the people of Matamoras and vicinnumerous introductions to the different ity, and President Lerdo evidently has foreign ambassadors and merchant of Greece, being without money, has require the presence of more troops. A month after his arrival, he headed hit upon an excellent means of defray- Matamoras, where the troubles now a subscription list with the sum of ing the expenses of its foreign diplocenter, is immediately opposite Browns- Sophie Cartenagg, the widow of the late matic service. It has sent a letter to cach of its legations abroad, informing the heads of those legations that they made to carry Cortina to Vera Cruz, a land, with her three young children, are at liberty to continue to manage affairs as heretofore, provided they do it at their own expense !

made to carry Cortina to Vera Cruz, a land, with her three young children, destitute of support." In some such manner ran the heading of the subscrip-DISPATCHES from the Black Hills

Count Perragi humanely took upon geological expedition indicate that near | himself the task of soliciting the sub-Harney's Peak gold has really been scriptions, and, incredible as it may found in paying quantities. The cor- about twenty days seem, collected the sum of $5,000 in

One morning Perragi suddenly disapaccompanying the expedition writes peared. Suspicions having arisen, the police authorities were instructed to find out M'me Cartenagg. But, alas a granite formation and gold-bearing by the beard of Mohammed, that Maquartz, besides finding gold in flakes in dame was a myth, and the Crescent the gulches. Prof. Jenny, Lieut. Mor-City knew her not! Done, by Jove! Anornen American shootist is loose ton and Dr. Lane, of the government Done to the tone of £5,000! Thus ends Now for the second act. Not far from gun in the face and rubbing it under of restrictions, and possess the land on from these two Establishments stands the mere intimation that gold is there. the Hotel de l'Europe.

If Gen. Custar had never rambled in In the latter place, M'me Estelle history. The celebrated battle of Clonhad hired a magnificent suite of rooms be resting in secure possession of this for the winter. She was a quite thirty. All her thoughts seemed centered in her boy. But oh! how surpassingly lovely she was! They say and Old Ireland, which were recently tried before the The Massachusetts Council Say He Must that the waiters of the Europe made The qualities required in these long ure has been brought to bear on the in Paris, governor and members of the council, ouncil for final disposition. Hearings half surveyed that dazzling beauty in marvelous degree, to the public have been given at the bewilderment. She told her story in state house before the governor and a quiet, brief manner. She had an only fired at long ranges until last summer, cause whatever. He did not rob them but without any salutary effect upon families were perfect strangers to him, rope. ous case, and soon became very inti- tus, M. de la Bastie's invention versed with him on the subject of his proposed to her, and was accepted. Thus stood matters in December, 1851, The last scene opens on the 4th day of anced bride rushing madly toward him.

"What is the matter, Estelle?"

He ran out and met her.

He crossed over to the establishm "Let me have that diamond neck a mile, when suddenly he felt a flutter- lace, these bracelets, this brooch and quick, the articles." Ten minutes after the doctor and the child and that was what attracted him Albert in the arms of two domestics.

"But doctor, these are worth millions, and—" returned the jeweler, rather at a loss what to do. "Give me pen, ink and paper. Here "At a rough calculation, five millions of francs.

success. My husband, Count Steffano Perragi, desires to be remembered to all his dear friends at Constantinople, and hopes that this second surprise may be of some value to them. Your diamonds brought me five million francs. never captured.

DOLLYMOUNT.

The Victory of the American Team in long-haired, serrowful-eved reland-And New for Another at Wim- after hesitating for a moment,

From the N. Y. Sun, June 30, ere the same-800, 900 and 1,000 vards; be targets six feet by twelve in size, with a center six feet by six, and a bull's oull's eye counts four; in the center three; in the outer, that is, anywhere else on the target, two. The teams are each of six men; each man has fifteen shots at each range, forty-five in all. The highest possible team score is

At Creedmoor, the total of the Americans was 934, that of the Irish, 931hns made up : At 800 yards, Americans, 325; Irish, 317; 900 yards, Americans, 10; Irish, 315; 1,000 yards, Americans, 298 : Trish, 303,

This affords us ground for compariso with the shots at Dollymount yes erday when the total was: Americans, 967 Irish, 929-thus made: At 800 yards the Americans made 337. the Irish, 338 900 yards, Americans 327, Irish 292 1,000 yards, Americans 303, Irish 299 Therefore the Americans beat their former scores heavily in each case-12 17, and 5 points respectively. The Irish gained heavily at 800 yards, 21 pointslost 23 points at 900 yards, and at 1,000 vards lost 4. The Americans beat the an old rouser of a fight-s reg'lar old Irish by 38 points, and their Creedmoo score by 33 points; the Irish fell behind heir Creedmoor performance 2 points.

The American shooting was indeed elendid, and the Irish compared favor ably with the best shooting at Wimble lon, the great English rifle range. Though beaten they maintained a high reputation, and justified their former title to the Elcho shield, the chief Wimbledon prize. They had exhausted ospitality to the American team previous to the match, and they gave unstinted honor to their successful oppopents when they retired victors from Dollymount, the range, is on a sandy island in Dublin bay, about three miles from the city, called the North Bull. It is part of the bar at the mouth of the Liffey, a stream far Decrest and her sickly son, Albert, tarf, fought by Brian Born, the renouned chief, against the invading Danes, before William the conqueror's melancholy sort of a lady, and about time, occurred on its banks. It was a Swing-Particulars of lits Horribte quite a handsome thing out of her by range rifle shots are endurance, steadi-Atrocities What Came of Reading allowing sundry "sparks" to peep at ness of nerve and careful calculation of madame through the key-hole, as she the varying windage. The council yesterday, by a vote of sat in her elegant morning costume at lasts for several hours; the men are five to four, authorized the governor of breakfast. She paid her bills regularly, kept up at high nervous tension by the Massachusetts to issue his warrant for saw no visitors, and received no letters. excitement of competition and the sym pathetic partisanship of the vast crowd M. Degranti junior (the jeweler), of witnesses. Only the strongest sall The facts of the two murders committed by this boy are only too well rich, and very fond of horses. The of muscle can hope to win even a decent PROF. JENNEY, who is prospecting the known. For months an immense press-Dr. Jacob Valpass was a man of amusing-all, however, depending or trom the government, has sent in another by parties in favor of meeting out to report, fully confirming his first impression and memoers of the council, thirty-two, and considered very clever. His father had left him some considerman to find as many points of support metal in the region around Harney's of sentence to imprisonment for life.

Delegation after delegation of ladies continued in practice. We have now to bring the rear or peep sight of his Peak that will pay for the mining. He (mothers in nearly all cases) have waited sufficiently described the four principal rifle as close to his eye as possible The target at these great distance It was after ten o'clock one night, looks of about the size of say one inch and will report the result. The pro-fessor is apparently doing his work in a

The fact that the American team never practice for ten years, gives added merit

"Tempered" Glass.

Varied as will be its application for scientific and industrial uses, its utility settle in Illinois, where Bismarck and vengeful feelings towards the parents of the careful him to visit her at the Hotel de l'Eu-housewife; besides its utility for all articles of common household crockery, Dr. Valpass took charge of this curi- china, hot water, and washing appara mate with Madame Decrest. To be future relieve her mind of all anxiety has been confined since his conviction brief, poor Valpass fell deeply in love, regarding her most favorite china and by members of the council, who con- and a month after their acquaintance he glass, for, if "tempered" by this process, they will be proof against the carelessness of the most careless servants. To give an illustration. Amongst several articles which we in turned out to be of the tempered glass enamelled on the top. It was thrown on the floor, gave forth a bell-like sound, but did not break. In fact, it "Oh, he is worse! Oh, come to him! may be thrown about anyhow without breaking. A square piece of glass about one-eighth of an inch in thickness was put into a wooden frame, rest "One moment : step into the carriage: ing only with its sides on the latter, and we were surprised to find that it sustained the weight of an adult man. Chimney-glasses and globes will fly directly if the gas is turned on too suda mile, when suddenly he left a littlering in his head and mechanically he these rings. Quick, Degranti! I am denly on lighting up; tempered glass took his pocket knife from his pocket, in a hurry. I only want them for an will stand sny sudden changes. It is even stated that pipes made of this glass will withstand the greatest pressure, and that it would be worth while trying it for water-pipes. If it were frost what discomfort would be spared the householder of London, who looks, at the breaking up of frost, for the bursting of his water-pipes and its con " Very well; here you are, Now, comitant misery, as regularly as to the non appearance of watering-carts when an east or north wind is blinding within a minute. The boy was a pretty | madame reached the hotel, and found | him with dust. We should not omit to mention that there is a great probability The medical man took charge of the of the efficiency and durability of the yelling boy and dismissed the servants.

He drew forth his treasures and placed We are informed that there is some of his killing the little girl in South Boston, he said that "that morning his The boy danced with glee, elapped his tanks of the new Westminster aquarium, mother and brother were away or en- hands, and gradually became pacified. now in course of erection. The glass gaged, and he was obliged to attend to He then slowly left the room with down-

Delore an was dead.

A DIME NOVER REaders.

The American rifle team will probably shoot at Wimbledon range, near ably shoot at Wimbledon range, again and the part of the return. If they shoot at Wimbledon range, near all things is manifest by our ultimate London, before their return. If they

Delore an was dead.

A DIME NOVER READER.

A DIME NOVER R

A FIGHT FOR SUPREMACY.

An Authentic Incident of Travel in the There was no signature or date.

And this was the last of the "Diamond Robbery." The thieves were a bad condition and the evening looked threatening, he haited before a forlornooking hut, and asked if he could find

"I reckon ye monght," replied the long-haired, serrowful-eved squatter, The Vicksburger found little to eat. and his horse found still less. The Both at the Creedmoor shooting last squatter and his wife were all alone, year and now at Dollymount the ranges and they had but a few words for the stranger, and scarcely spoke to each other. When the evening grew old the traveler camped down on the floor on a eye three feet by three. A shot in the blanket, and being very tired he fell saleep while host and hostess were smoking their black clay pipes at the other end of the room. He had slept about two hours when the squatter shook him by the shoulder and said : "Stranger, I'm powerful sorry to disturb ve, but I went to ax a favor.' "Yes-yes-what is it?" inquired the Vicksburger, as he rubbed his eyes and "Ye like to see fa'r play, don't ye, stranger ?" "Yes, of course."

"Wall, me'n the old woman can't gree; somehow she's cross and tetchy, and I guess I'm a trifle ugly. Leastwise, we don't hug up worth ole boots. We've fit and fit; I'm old and she's chuck full o' grit, and it's about an even girl's destination she invited him in.

"Well, I'm sorry," put in the Vicksburger, as the squatter hesitated.
"We've been a-balkin' since ye cum, stranger, and we've made up to ask ye for the next civil-service examination, to hold the candle and let us go in for sockdolager, which shall settle our fuss

"I'm sorry if there's any trouble, and I hope you wen't fight." "She's right, stranger," said the smart in just four hoots and a holler! said the squatter as he pushed up his

"Sam, ye don't weigh 'nuff into three tons!" she replied in a grim voice, and the battle commenced The Vicksburger mentally bet twenty to one on the man at the start, but in two minutes he had reduced the odds to ten, and in two minutes more he was betting even. The wife was like a wildcat, springing, dodging, striking, and lawing, and pretty soon her husband and to stand on the defensive.

"Look out for the Bengal tiger. Suke!" he warned as he clawed the air, "I can whip the boots off n ye, Sam !"
she replied, and the battle grew flercer. One of the woman's sharp nails struck cents, in addition to the regular postan instant. As he threw up his arms she seized both her hands into his hair, yanked him down, and in another monent had the "gouge" on him. they lay quiet, "That's the dead-wood. Suke, and

She let him up, and he turned to the trouble and annoyance. Vicksburger and inquired : "Stranger, was it a fa'r fought?" "I guess it was!"

"Then I travel!" He entered the hut, put on his coat and hat, took up his rifle, and as he came out he reached his hand to his wife, and said: "Good-bye, Suke! We agreed fa'r and squar', and here I go!"
turning to the traveler, he added: Then,

"Much obleeged, stranger-ye the candle plumb fa'r, and ye didn't holler for either one of us!" And he walked down to the fence, leaped over, and was soon lost to sight, "Good ruff on the shoot," mused the wife as she gazed after him, "but his fighting weight is clar run down to nuthin!"- Vicksburg Herald.

STARVING INDIANS. The Sufferings of the Arrapahoes at Red Cloud. A correspondent of the Denver story about the starving Arrapahoes: "Within two miles of the military about 200 lodges of Arrapahoes. These Indians are quiet, peaceable poorly armed, and have only a few ponies. As this country is destitute of game, they They have not received any rations sisting of salt pork and tobacco, both of decidely inferior quality, and, I am told by the Indians, one-third the usual rations. The same day they received a few small steers, the first in twenty days. They are thronging the post and cavalry camp here, begging for bread, meat, or any article of food. Men and women visit the back-vards and slop-barrels, and eat with avidity be eaten.

children are perfect little skeletons, arms and legs like pipe-stems, and faces bony, gaunt and old looking, with Somebody is responsible for the starving of these people. They have submitted to the authority of the government, and this is their reward. Who can blame them if, starved into desper-pound it in a mortar, and then roast the powder on a moderately heated fron plate, until it assume a dark brown tint,

"Great Cotton."

The Washington Capital tells the following smusing and improbable story A humorous incident, the result of absent-mindedness and wet weather, occurred last week with a prominent treasury gentleman as the principal per-former. Business detained him at the York Times says, "spring brooks and experiments, made on seven patients. nry gentleman as the principal peroffice until after dark, and the rain coming on he was still further detained He wore a new and elepant pair of pants springs of pure cold water rise and of light material, and not wishing to flow over the surface, losing themselves air passage, so that all air inspired trarumple the goods in a June shower, de. in a disagreeable, if not injurious cided to take them off, leave them in swamp or quagmire, which is trodden tients were suddenly aroused from their cided to take them off, leave them in the desk, and horseward pike his dreary way in his limb-underclothing, trusting to the night to keep them from observation. He started out umbrellard and his drawers pulled down as closely to his instep as they could be induced to his instep as they could be induced to which it disappears. By simple or the desk, and horseward pike his dreary part of their injury and their owner's loss. In many other farms again, at certain seasons of the year, temporary water courses are filled, and pass large quantities of water to rivers or lakes, into which it disappears. By simple or applicable in the desk into the desk, and horseward pike his dreary passed from their up by stock, or wallowed in by hogs to their injury and their owner's loss. In many other farms again, at certain seasons of the year, temporary water courses are filled, and pass large quantities of water to rivers or lakes, into which it disappears. By simple or applicable in the desk, and horseward pike his dreary passed from their up by stock, or wallowed in by hogs to their injury and their owner's loss. In many other farms again, at certain seasons of the year, temporary water courses are filled, and pass large quantities of water to rivers or lakes, into go. It seemed so natural, and no one which it disappears. By simple or appearing to notice it, that he forgot cheaply constructed dams, these temmade of procedure seemed to have about the condition of things altogether porary streams of water might be resomething to do with the proportion strained, and made to yield a permanent thus obtained, for this increased proto remark to a young lady sequaintance who glided past a gaslight on her way to a memorial meeting or a Shakespeare club performance. He was only slightly acquainted, but counted on his umbrella services as escort. These were readily ccepted and the couple got tolerably ntimate through the slushy street, so much so that when they arrived at the le ought not to have sceepted it, but feeling that a little relaxation, such as is afforded by our amateur dramatics, would benefit his mental qualifications squatter, "and this cabin can't hold that shows he doesn't care much if he furnish food. The necessary labor and both of us any longer! It's to be a squar' don't see it again. The females blushed skill is so small, and the pleasure and fight—no kicking or clubbing, and we won't go back on yer decision!"

The Vicksburger protested, but the The Vicksburger protested, but the The Vicksburger protested, but the The Vicksburger protested that they couldn't, and The Country In the Co woman placed a lighted candle in his the gentlemen smole wicked smiles. Our duce many farmers to experiment. It is of the foliage in the vicinity where the hand, and posted him in the door, and friend arose with velocity, and, merely needful to follow nature's ways as near accident occurs, made by the lightning > man's umbrella. The law went into effect Thursday placing the fees on domestic money rders as follows: On orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents.

On orders over $15 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents. On orders over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents. On orders over $40 and not exceeding $80, 25 cents. Postage on printed matter and merhandise, one cent for every ounce, or fraction thereof, up to four pounds.

The fee for registering letters will shortly be increased from eight to ten Postage on letters to Great Britain, Germany, Sweden, Spanish possessions, Switzerland, Turkey, Italy and Denmark, has been reduced to a regular "Sam, do ye cave?" she asked as standard rate of five cents to every half ounce or fraction thereof. By remembering these points, those I'm a licked man!" he mournfully an- who have business at the postoffice will save themselves and the clerks much

Making Camphor Gum

Vice-Consul Allen, in his report of the trade of Tamsuy and Kelung, quoted in Nature, describes the distillation of the champhor of commerce the distillers having to be constantly on the alert for fear of attack by the aborigines, who are naturally opposed to tion which is being surely effected in A correspondent of the Denver story at Red Cloud agency, tells this News, and half filled with water, is placed post of Camp Robinson is a village of fitted, and on these boards are placed id a is not a bad one. jars containing the camphor-wood chips, the whole being surmounted by inverted earthenware pots, and the joints made air-tight by filling them up are entirely dependent for food on the with 1 emp. When the furnaces are lit agency here. They are supposed to the steam passes through the pierced antest features of the parks and private receive, every tenth day, rations of boards, and saturating the chips, causes gardens of New York, Brooklyn and pork, flour, coffee, sugar and tobacco. the sublimated camphor to settle in surroundings. It adds: crystals on the inside of the pots, from since May 30, the issue that day con- which it is scraped off and afterwards which would otherwise be annoying > twenty per cent, on its way from the birds, they seem in cities to do no parproducing districts to the port of ship-ment.

>
> Blue, they seem to some complaint is made of their destructiveness in grain "for their country's good "-and, per- crease, haps, for mankind's. Only genuine thoughtful and honest of spiritualist papers, thinks this is a sign that the entific study has begun, -Springfield permission to ask a question.

Fish Culture on the Farm

To raise fish as a market crop may be profitable in some cases near cities, and A gentleman residing in this city had occasion a few days since to make a journey down the river and several plate in the room which you wish to have purified.

When it is fit for use. Then spring a where there is no natural supply when it is fit for use. there should not be a fish pond on every farm to yield and always accessible supply of wholesome food for the family, to take the place, in part, of the inevitable bacon, and save some of the hard earned cash which now goes to readily aroused by applying small quan our distant smoke-houses in the west. for this purpose. On many others, a napkin folded in four, which was sapply of stock water, and afford facili gressively with the number of cases exties for the production of an ample supply of fish. Trout, bass, perch, and pike, all of which are excellent and valuable fish, might be raised in ponds and the rain to hurry over and offer his thus prepared, while the homely, but London, that the brain of man is more not unsavory cat fish, the carp, and other second-rate fish, will live and brain of inferior animals, it is more thrive in such a pond as might not unworthily be termed a mud hole."

oran of interior animals, it is more drove the pair back to their notel, and unworthily be termed a mud hole."

subject to injury, and more liable to then called upon the clergyman to discuss the pair back to their notel, and the pair back to their notel, and the pair back to The beautiful spotted brook trout requires conditions not always attainable among all races of mankind, and that -pure water, a gravelly or sandy bottom, and a temperature not over sixty want of intellect approaching to idiocy. degrees in summer, but "bass, and Alluding to the attempts that have is an excess, and not essential to the perch, will flourish under less favorable been made to find a link of connection for the next civil-service examination, overcame his scruples and entered. Circumstances than trout. They will not object to a muddy bottom, nor to water whose temperature for a part of an imperfectly developed brain might be tween man and apes, he remarked not saved by sweetness on an imperfectly developed brain might. If I lick, she'll go; if she licks, I'll and, taking a prominent seat, as treas the year may rise above sixty degrees, wander into some cave, and there die, ury clerks are wont to do, started with a facetions remark to a reighbor and to pull his pantaloons up to save them from I hope you wen't fight."

"We've got to do it, stranger," replied the woman, "I won't live with a man who kin lick me, and he's just as high-born. Sam's as good as the run o' men, but he's lazy and sassy, and wants to wear his hat on his ear!"

"Bull his pantaloons up to save them from the stopped in the stopped in the stopped in the middle of the facetions remark and didn't pull them up either. He merely gazed at his lower self for a moment in that steadfast manner in which a man to wear his hat on his ear!"

"We've got to do it, stranger," repull his pantaloons up to save them from or ponds in which there is only spring the covered, such a skull might be adduced as affording the long-looked-for link connecting man with the inferior animals. He expresses the opinion that the difference in question is altogether too in a short time insects and worms will in a short time insects and worms will wide to be bridged over by this skull of seen before, and with a painful interest accumulate in the pond, which will any creature yet discovered. PHOTOGRAPHS BY LIGHTING.

man and wife stepped out on the ground.

"Suke, I'm going to wallop ye right the house with celerity and another not the least part of the profit that a case of photograph. There are no profit that a case of photograph. There are no profit that a case of photograph. There are no profit that a case of photograph. fish pond upon a farm will furnish a reasons, however, in support of the constant reservoir of stock water in sea- proposition advanced by Mr. Tomlinson sons when water is scarce." Wicker Coffins A number of prominent medical men in England are conducting a spirited crusade against the present method of bucking our dead bodie under the as it were, to find the line of least relaisies, recommending that wicker paskets be substituted for the splendid metallic and air-tight affairs with which corpses are now enveloped preparatory fore their ship was struck by lightning. a little envy. "Who is she?" asked corpses are now enveloped preparatory to interment. While it is the aim of our scientific undertakers to so perfect their carkets that the remains enclosed will preserve their life likeness as long as possible, these medical folks across the matter are and averaged to ponof the person struck. ularize the use of wicker coffins, in order that the dissolution of the body and its resolution into mother earth of the Australian railways in lining lo- "chesp and nasty." A visit which I order of things without hindrance. The novement seems to be a sort of compromise between the costly process of inhumation now in vogue and the more repugnant, though cheaper, cremation, while the centre plate (iron) had a layer with the impression that tobacco and repugnant, though cheaper, cremation.
"Dust thou art, dust returnest," seems of incrustation teu millimetres thick in no other leaf was, whether good or to be the text of the advocates of the new movement, and they are in favor new movement, and they are in layor of making a practical application of it. surface, and only three millimetres' establishment is the rank overpowering thickness of incrustation. Dr. Seymour Haden has opened an exhibition of the wicker basket with open meshes, which he recommends for burial, at the duke of Sutherland's The death from hydrophobia which half naked men, brown with the juice Nees et Eb., as a most hazardous trade, flocked to it as one of the sights of the some respects noteworthy. The victim season. When fashion commends a new idea in anything, no matter if it is habits. The dog that bit him showed the continual encrosebments into their territory for the purpose of cutting down the trees for extracting the camphor. No young trees are planted to replace those cut down, nor do the officer place those cut down, nor do the officer place those cut down, nor do the diminn a coffin, of course the success of the no symptoms of disease, and is still lineaments of decessed friends to allow the proposed innovation to gain popularity. On the contray, the world danger. Still he lived in constant it is composed of various tobaccos, and various t the supply of a valuable commercial ularity. On the contray, the world article. The stills are described as would rather know the secret of the old dread of hydrophobia, passing sleepless dread of hydrophobia, passing sleepless being of a very simple construction, Egyptian process of mummy-making, nights, and often suljecting himself to and are built up in a shed in such a and learn thereby to preserve through various tests in fear of discovering manner that they can be moved as the all time the physical semblance of the traces of disease. Finally, on the 11th Chinese advance into the interior. A departed, even though a mummy, after of June, eight weeks after the bite, the bouse officers. This mixture is long wooden trough, coated with clay and half filled with water, is placed over eight or ten furnaces; on the trough boards pierced with holes a cold, is one of the most hideous things and boards pierced with holes a cold, is one of the most hideous things and boards pierced with holes a cold, is one of the most hideous things and makers are, I case is anomalous, but not without a case is anomalous, but not without a the persons employed in the catabilishment of June, eight weeks and the boards were manifested. Spasms supervened, and of 100 parts. The snuff makers are, I case is anomalous, but not without a the persons employed in the catabilishment of the persons employed in the catabilishment.

The English Sparrow.

The Bural New Yorker regards the English sparrow as one of the pleas refined. During the summer months the camphor often loses as much as have driven away most other small the queen, Marie Antoinette. Parting

NUMBER 29. tell you; if you knew who he was, you would be greatly disappointed at the curiosity which he has excited,"

SCRAPS OF SCIENCE. AN ESTRETIZING DURING SLEEP. Prof. Dolbean describes at much ongth, in the Annales d' Hyginene, hir various experiments to ascertain whether a person can be anaesthetized during sleep. He mentions the cases of three patients, who, while sleeping, were tities of chloroform at no great distance York Times says, "spring brooks and small streams or rivers, may be utilized ten drops of chloroform were poured on gradually brought to the vicinity of the versed it; in all these cases, the paperimented upon.

BRAIN OF MAN AND APES. Prof. Owen is quoted as saying, beexperience the want of perfect development; that instances of idiocy occur extreme smallness of the skull indicates

The leaf-like figures which are so frecess of photograph. There are strong F. R. S., that these figures are not de rived from trees at all, but represent the flery hand of lightning itself, the trunk being traced by the main discharge, while the spray-like branches proceed from the electric feelers first cast out, It is nevertheless true that neighboring parallel. Just about a year ago one McCormick died in New York city under much the same circumstances. All that seems to be established in regard to hydrophobia does not conflict with the developments just noticed. The prime condition of the disease is, the case with all healthy dogs whose bites have proved fatal. - Chicago Tri-

England's New Cause of Alarm. A new potato disease, which promises fields and in seed gardens, and further to be more disastrons than the old one, The spiritualistic phenomena are to be south they may in time become more of thoroughly investigated in St. Peters. burg by a special committee of scientists. burg by a special committee of scientists burg by a special committee of scientists burg by a special committee of scientists be feared. The little songsters would be feared. The little songsters would be feared. The little songsters would be feared by by draulic burgests by hydraulic three successive days I have seen them around a pit into which my cook throws around a pit into which my cook throws the return of his hitches of hitches hitches of his hitches of his hitches of his hitches of hitches of his hitche refuse of his kitchen, fishing out thorough representative American medibacon rinds, potato parings, dry crusts ums are to be invited thither at the winter. Many of them died last winter spread as to call for the greatest vigiof bread, old bones—anything that can expense of the university, they making in spite of all precautions and care. In spite of all precautions and care. e eaten.

"So they are come to starve. The will take place twice a week, and for a will take place twice a week, and for a will take place twice a week, and for a beginning that the investigations as yet to be confined to the new varie defines which they display in "making the case."

This places the matter on an easily vent it becoming general. It appears done by women, and the quickness and vent it becoming general. It appears done by women, and the quickness and vent it becoming general as yet to be confined to the new varie defines which they display in "making the case of the part of chitivators to preperiod of not less than six months. The row is an undoubted blessing and there ties which have within the past few up" is really astonishing. Countess Blavatsky has been commis- be may be fed and protected through years been introduced form America, faces bony, gaunt and old looking, with an ashy, unnatural complexion that at once attracts attention. A woman had sellor Aksakoff was one of those who draw their care and the severity of when it is about six inches high; the breed child, with lovely brown eyes, shared in Professor Wagner's examinations of Home and Brediff last winter their numbers. In England farmers ceases, the tubers never exceeding the machines in another room post to-day, trying to trade him off for a sack of flour. Now, somebody is cer tainly to blame for this state of affairs. Holmeses will be induced to emigrate never severe enough to check their inpartial crop, with this one there is no The manufacture of a cigar is certain chance of any. As the nation is not a pleasing operation. The woman threatened with such a scourge as this takes a handful of coarse-looking to When General Cass was minister to promises to be, the editor hopes her bacco, gives it a rell with her hands, with the then king of the French with the then king of the French, matter up and adopt the necessary

> Gold Dust.—Better a dead white rose, shut in a Bible, than a flourishing field of stinging nettles.
>
> There is no such thing as luck. It's a fancy name for being always at your duty, and sure to be ready when the good time comes.
>
> Let the ideals of us, in the hearts that love us, be prophetic of what we shall become.
>
> Ask what you please, "the kipg replied.
>
> "Then," queried the minister, "can "break an ox?" The editor answered as follows: "If only one ox, a good way would be to hoist him, by means of a long chain attached to his tail, to the top of a pole forty feet from the ground. Then heist him, by a rope tied to his horns, to another pole, and the process of twisting rolls into what is ground. Then heist him, by a rope tied to his horns, to another pole, and few government transfer east little as two or three halfpence, country paper to ask how he would "break an ox?" The editor answered as follows: "If only one ox, a good way would be to hoist him, by means of a long chain attached to his tail, to the top of a pole forty feet from the ground. Then heist him, by a rope tied to his horns, to another pole, and few government transfer east ittle as two or three halfpence, country paper to ask how he would "break an ox?" The editor answered as follows: "If only one ox, a good way would be to hoist him, by means of a long chain attached to his tail, to the top of a pole forty feet from the ground. Then heist him, by a rope tied to his horns, to another pole, and few government transfer east of a long chain attached to his tail, to the top of a long chain attached to his tail, to the top of a pole forty feet from the ground. Then heist him, by a rope tied to his back a five-ton pile-driver, and, if that don't break not remained to east as little as two or three halfpence, country paper to ask how he would "break an ox?"
>
> The editor of the editor of the country paper to ask how he would "break an ox?"
>
> The editor of the editor of the way would be to hoist him, by means of a long chain attached to his tail, to the t same curiosity, asked him whether he could tell me anything about the mysters. 'Only this' could the county newspaper him, let him start a country newspaper kind, which was made expressly for and kind, which was made expressly for any kind, which was m

LOOKI The pencil marks you see around this paragraph (thus) mean that your subscriptior is out or unpaid, and that you are requested to pay up at once, We would take great pleasure in extend-ing credit to our friends and patrons, but cash alone will pay expenses, and we are forced to adhere to a strict cash we are forced to adhere to a strict cash rule. We hope you will comprehend and appreciate the necessity of such a course, and renew your subscription without delay. We solicit your favor, the we could be subscription to the weather than the work of the without the money in advance.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

THE CARRIER DOVE .-My bird lot loose in far-off skies,
When hast'ning fondly home,
Ne'er stoops to earth her wing, nor flies
Where idle wayblers rosm.
But high she shoots through air and light,

Above all low delay. Where nothing earthly bounds her flight, Nor shadow dims her way.

So grant me, God, from every care
And stain of passion free,
Aloft through virtue's purer sir,
To hold my course to thee!
No sin to cloud, no lure to stav
My soul as home nhe swrings; Thy sunshine on her joyful way, Thy freedom on her wings. -There is nothing like 'em. A worthy Athol lady fed a tramp, the other day, after which he asked if he might go to bed long enough for her to wash and iron his shirt. -After all the street-car conductors who have committed suicide because their honesty was doubted, the New York companies now find that they have sayed over a militon dollars by the use of the bell-punch. -The Tennessee river went through the strance freak of rising some eighteen inches and then ebbing and owing like the ocean for about four hours, at London, Tenn., the other day, and nobody can tell what was the matter with it.

-The Nisgara backman has once more come to the surface. He drove a young counte to a clergyman's house, officiated as "best man" for the bridegroom drove the pair back to their hotel, and vide the fee with him

-Honey comes originally from the roots of plants, and undergoes processe during the formation of the flower, and that which is gathered up by the bees development of the fruit or flower. If

So twinkle stars, through nights by moons made gold : So landerates beam 'neath summer suns un

If my love laugh : So play in song glad waves along white sands. So harps of leaves laugh 'neath Æolian hands. If my love speak : " So ring the merry voices of the woods, That cheer alike sunshine and solitudes

So morning flushes up the dimpled skies; So eve's carnation with the twilight dies. If my love weep:

He fall the crystal tears of night in dew.

Skies ween that earth may bloom more fair and new.

If my love love: So bliss leaps gladly from blest heart to heart; Nor life nor death shall find our souls apart.

TOBACCO AS A MONOPOLY. How the Paternal Government of

France Manufactures the Weed-An Unpleasant Establishment on the Qual d'dreay. Every one knows that the monopoly of manufacturing tobacco by the State was suggested to Napoleon III. by the sistance. The sensation of cob-webs gorgeous appearance of a lady at one being drawn over the face, which has of the court balls. Her diamonds, in a little envy. "Who is she?" asked electricity preceding the main discharge. | wife of a retired tobacco manufacturer. From that evening free trade in to PREVENTION OF INCRUSTATION OF BOILERS. it must be confessed that the produce comotive boilers with copper, to prevent | have just paid to the manufactory on incrustation. The plates at each end the Quai d'Oreav, one of the fifteer two years, and carious corrosion besides, | bad, exclusively used. The first thing the copper plates had quite a smooth which strikes a visitor on entering the Curious Death From Hydrophobia. is utterly indescribable to those who do not know it. In the lower rooms which goes on for eighteen mouths. French, together with all contraband tobacco-some of it very suspiciouslooking stuff-seized by the custom ment. It may be stated that the number is 2,000, of whom 1,600 are women and girls. Up stairs are rooms experienced hands, who can toil at once if the tobacco be of foreign or of home growth, though I must confess that to that the animal communicating the virus should be excited, which has been to the various shuff cutting and poundme it looked much the same. In addition ing machines, a long gallery is filled with implements, also worked by steam, which neatly splice the compr leaves in the pipe tobaccos known as "Maryland" and "Caporal," the latter being considerably coarser, but, it is last two years there has been a very there are many rooms filled with girls everything secure, and the result is a cigar, which is then made of the required length by an instrument like a turnip-cutter. Some of these cigars tery. 'Only this' replied the count, once in rambling through the Tuileries, I found myself in the apartments of ant sight, and if any parent wishes to