CHEGARAY INSTITUTE who has much strength politically." Has such patriotism an equal? No persuasion could induce him to run. Being informed that his strength was unnecessary to carry the ficket through to victory, he replied: "I want to make a final settlement of this business;" where upon Wm. Hall's resignation was received and Milton Little johu nominated. What a glorious country we would have if filled up with "such patriots as Wm. Hall! Won't you join me in, "Long may he wave?"
