

THEOSOPHY IN JERSEY CITY.

The Theosophical Society has been attracting considerable attention in Jersey City of late, and it is proposed to hold a public meeting in the Royal Arcanum Hall, at Crescent and Jackson aves., on January 19, to tell the people just what Theosophists believe. The following interesting programme has been arranged: Selection, string quartet—Miss Helen Fuller, Miss C. Flint, Mrs. Josephine Schenck and Charles M. Mall; "Objects of the Theosophical Society," by John M. Pryse; "What Is Theosophy?" by Dr. E. B. Gould; violin solo, by Wenzell A. Raboch; "Dangers of the Psychical Plane," by J. H. Connelly.

During intermission a branch of the society for Jersey City will be formed, after which the programme will be concluded as follows: "As Ye Sow, So Also Shall Ye Reap," by H. A. Freeman; violin solo, by Wenzell A. Raboch; "The Finding of the True Self," by Charles Johnston; occultism or acquirement of superhuman powers.
