
THEOSOPHISTS ORGANIZE IN JERSEY CITY

Over 100 residents of the Bergen section of Jersey City attended the organization on Friday night of a new branch of the Theosophical Society. John M. Pryse, Dr. E. B. Gullid, Charles Johnston and H. A. Freeman, of New-York City, had charge of the meeting.

The new branch started with twenty-two charter members, and before the meeting adjourned Mr. Pryse announced that permanent headquarters for the local branch would be at No. 22 Virginia-ave., with regular meetings each Monday night. The meeting was held in Arcanum Hall, in Jackson-ave., and the audience evinced so much interest in the several discourses that it was decided to begin a theosophical crusade, the first meeting of which will take place in Arcanum Hall next Saturday evening.
