AN INTERESTING MEETING TO BE HELD IN JERSEY CITY ON MONDAY EVENING.

The Jersey City Theosophical Society has decided to give a special meeting on Monday evening, at the headquarters, No. 22 Virginia-ave., where regular meetings are held every Monday evening. Theosophy will be presented in plain terms by able speakers. The programme is as follows: Selection, vocal quartet; "Brotherhood," Mrs. M. A. Maschmedt; "The Search for God," Dr. E. B. Guld; "Theosophy Simply Stated," Mrs. Sarah Cape; "Masters of Wisdom," T. R. Prater; "Man's Possibilities," Miss Anna M. Stabler; "The Awakening of the Soul," John M. Pryse.

After this the Theosophical meeting will close, the remainder of the evening to be an entertainment. There will be a selection by the vocal quartet, followed by a string quartet, consisting of Miss Amy Neresheimer and Messrs Theodore Schultz, Edward Hessells and Frederick Neresheimer, of Bayside.
